

And Then There Were None

After a few short years, Octavia finds herself in a loveless marriage. Octavia doesn't have the courage to tell her husband Calvin the truth, so she does nothing except continue an affair with a former lover, Lynwood. Imagine being so full of yourself, that you ignore the obvious. You're so busy doing your own dirt that you fail to see what's right under your nose. All is not quite what it seems because unbeknownst to Octavia, Calvin has some lies of his own and so does Lynwood. Octavia's selfish destructive behavior that was full of lies and deceit caused her life to spiral out of control until she crashed and burned costing her everything. She gambled with love and lost totally obliterating her life as she knew it. Octavia thought she had it all; beauty, two loves, and a promising career. And in the end she ends up with nothing. The thing about Lies is they always have a way of finding you like a GPS tracking system. And Then There Were None is a cautionary tale of a rude awakening to one day be forced to realize life doesn't revolve around her.
