

The Beautiful and Damned: F. Scott Fitzgeralds Jazz Age Morality Tale

The Beautiful and Damned is Fitzgeralds Jazz Age Morality Tale featuring Anthony Patch, who is a 1920s socialite, his wife Gloria, alcoholism, high society, fast lifestyles, and even a semi-autobiographical look into the authors own life. Through it all we get Fitzgeralds thoughts on marriage, love, decadence, greed, and humanity. Its Fitzgerald at his best and a classic literary tale that should not be missed.
