

The Potato King

A whodunit mystery that spans three generations. The story moves from birth through adolescence and into maturity as the two principal characters intercourse with ever-changing events, leaving WWII behind and settling into the intense drama of a nation suddenly active with capital gain entrepreneurs. The journey molds each character, with diverse morals, opposing values, unique emotional makeup and finally into the type of men they become; each with the same goal in mind; each determined to use the other to gain his own ends. Will breeding and childhood environment be the deciding factor? You be the judge. Read The Potato King.
